

FEDORA Careers Guidance & Employment Group Conference

-Unlocking the potential-

The role of Higher Education Careers Advisors and Recruiters in equipping students for a European labour market

3rd-4th June, 2010

University of Bordeaux 1, France

A conference for all graduate recruiters, Higher Education educators and support staff interested and involved in European graduate employment and employability

PROGRAMME (website will be available soon!)

Interactive workshops and presentations, thematic discussions, exchange of best practices

- How can Careers Advisers equip students with the skills to prosper in a period of downturn in the economy?
- What are the most effective ways for Recruiters and Careers Advisers to work together to develop employability in the curriculum?
- How can we encourage students to be more entrepreneurial?
- How has the implementation of the Bologna process impacted on careers guidance practice and the employment prospects of students?

FEES & REGISTRATION

130 Euro for Fedora and EAIE members

150 Euro for non members.

Reservations will be made on a 'first-come-first-served' basis

Website will be available soon!

INFORMATION fedora.bordeaux@gmail.com

