

PRESS RELEASE

2 October 2006

European Association for International Education

The EAIE welcomes new President and Executive Board

In Spring 2006, EAIE members cast their electronic ballots for the 2007–2008 President and Executive Board. The results were consolidated during the General Meeting at the annual conference in Basel, Switzerland held from 13–16 September 2006.

Fiona Hunter, International Director at the Università Carlo Cattaneo and former EAIE Vice-President, became President. Bjørn Einar Aas, International Advisor at the University of Bergen Department of Research Management, became Vice-President. Both have been active in the EAIE for many years; their terms will last 2 years, until September 2008.

Holding true to the objectives of the EAIE, the members of the newly elected Executive Board are once again, international – hailing from such countries as The Netherlands, Poland and the United States. For complete lists of the election results see <http://www.eaie.org/about/EB.asp> and <http://www.eaie.org/networking/ps/>.
