

CAMPUS EXPERIENCE 02a

2a – Edinburgh Napier University (Merchiston Campus): Empowering future difference makers

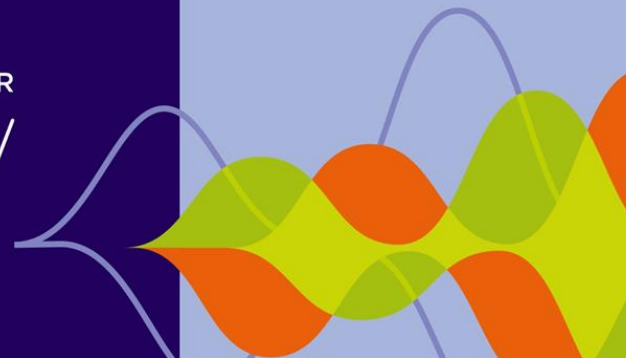

During the Campus Experience at Edinburgh Napier University, discover what makes Edinburgh Napier a distinctive, career-focused university in one of the UK's most exciting student cities. Curious about what sets us apart? Join us to learn more about our strengths, our industry-informed programmes, and the opportunities we offer students through practical learning and strong employer connections.

You will gain insight into what students can expect when studying with us, from our supportive learning environment and modern facilities across three Edinburgh campuses to the vibrant international community that shapes the Edinburgh Napier experience. We will also introduce our key subject areas, including business, computing, engineering, creative industries, health and life sciences.

You will also have the opportunity to meet members of our international team, ask questions to our international students, and explore how we work with partners worldwide. As the #1 university in Edinburgh for student satisfaction for five consecutive years (NSS 2020–2024), we look forward to sharing what makes the Edinburgh Napier experience so highly valued by our students.

About the institution

Edinburgh Napier University is a modern university in Edinburgh, Scotland, known for career-focused education and strong industry partnerships. We pride ourselves on delivering a practical, applied approach to learning and research, helping students develop the skills needed for successful careers. The university has three campuses across the city and is particularly recognised for its strengths in business, computing, engineering, creative industries, health, and life sciences.
